IT APPEARING TO THE COURT THAT on October 6, 2009, an indictment was returned against the defendant named above seeking criminal forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(a)(7), 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c) of assets totaling no less than the sum of $819,111.48,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

That the defendant, IRIS F. ALLEN, her agents, representatives, servants, employees, attorneys, family members and those persons in active concert or participation with her, and anyone holding property, both real or personal, for her, is hereby ENJOINED AND RESTRAINED from transferring, selling, assigning, pledging, distributing, giving away, encumbering or otherwise participating in the disposal of (by transfer of stock or otherwise) or removal from the jurisdiction of this Court, or removal from any checking or savings account of all or part of the defendant's interest, direct or indirect, in all property, real or personal, up to the sum of $819,111.48 without prior approval of the court upon notice to the United States and an opportunity for the United States to be heard, except as specified in this Order. The defendant affected by this order is further identified below:

Any financial institution, individual or other entity having a security interest in any real or personal property subject to this restraining order is hereby required to respond promptly to requests by the Government for information on the status of the debt secured by property of the defendant.

In the event that the defendant desires to transfer, convey, liquidate or encumber any property and if the United States consents to such transfer, the transfer may be made upon condition that all sale proceeds shall be placed in escrow in an account(s) approved by counsel for the government. In the event that forfeiture is ultimately ordered, any funds received from the sale of property for the actual property forfeited shall be substituted for the actual property and such funds shall also be available to satisfy an order forfeiting substitute assets pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(b)(1), which incorporates 21 U.S.C. § 853(p).

Financial Institutions

Any financial institution holding assets of the defendant shall freeze such assets. The financial institutions are directed to prevent and are otherwise enjoined from transferring (by wire or otherwise), conveying or disposing of all monies currently within the affected accounts up to the sum of $819,111.48. In ordering the financial institutions to freeze all accounts, it is the intention of the court that the financial institutions shall not honor any demands by correspondent banks to release any money nor shall the financial institutions honor any checks or other negotiable instruments drawn on the accounts, if to do so would reduce the balance of the account below the amount frozen. The financial institutions shall continue to credit any deposits, interest, dividends, or other credits to such accounts in the normal course of business, and such deposits, interest, dividends, and other credits shall be subject to this Order.

All financial institutions on which a copy of this order is served shall immediately inform the federal law enforcement agency providing the order or the United States Attorney of the balances of any and all restrained accounts on the date of service. Any financial institution having a lien on any property listed in this order shall likewise provide to the United States Attorneys Office information regarding payments and the balance on loans secured by property listed in this order.

The United States is directed to serve a copy of this order on the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and any other entity or individual the government believes may be in possession of property of the defendant.

Let the Clerk send 10 certified copies of this order to counsel for the United States Attorneys Office.

So ORDERED this 6 day of October, 2009.
